

She Sang to Me

Before I ever knew words, I knew what love was,
Before I ever saw stars, I heard heaven.
A string of pearls made of melodies
A house of wisdom built of verse.

She sang to me.
Mama sang to me
From her heart
That was Everything.
She sang to me.
My mother sang to me
From her heart
And that was Everything.

She didn't always have time for what I wanted.
She did the best that she could every day.
I didn't know her sacrifice until later
Her Book of Life had love notes on each page.
